The president-elect's dut es shall be to

Leadership & Oversight:

Perform the dut es of the president in the president's absence. In the event of vacancy of the presidency, the president-elect shall succeed to the presidency and complete the remainder of the term.

Encourage classmates and COB students/chapter members to part cipate in all chapter events through approved social media posts and other avenues.

At end and part cipate in execut ve member meet ngs throughout the year, and strive to at end the majority of, if not all, chapter events.

Administrat ve:

Providing records and account informat on (i.e., username & password) to faculty advisors as requested and prior to the end of your t me in this role.

Fulf lling addit onal dut es as delegated by the faculty advisors or president.

Qualif cations:

This posit on will need to be filed by a chapter member with a love for all things AMA, the Market ng Profession, and WGU and be willing to share that excitement and energy with their fellow chapter members.

Maintain act ve student status and AMA membership while serving in this role.

At ending executive member meetings and chapter events.

Willingness and ability to at end chapter events while serving in this role.

The vice president of programming & events' dut es shall be...

Event Planning, Execution, & Promotion:

Collaborate with the Faculty Advisor for Programming & Events to organize, recommend, and manage chapter events.

Coordinate with chapter leaders or appointed members for special events or projects. Partner with the Faculty Advisor for Programming & Events to network with potent al guest hosts for educat onal events and support networking events.

Promote chapter events and encourage member part cipat on through approved channels. Leadership:

At end execut ve member meet ngs and the majority of chapter events.

At end and collaborat vely oversee/conduct chapter events.

Administrat ve:

On request, and at the end of one's t me in this role, provide faculty advisors with all writ en records, contacts for those involved with events (i.e., speakers, facilitators, etc.) and account informat on, including any necessary login and passwords.

Fulf lling addit onal dut es as delegated by the faculty advisors or president.

Qualif cations:

This posit on will need to be filed by a chapter member with a love for all things AMA, the Market ng Profession, and WGU and be willing to share that excitement and energy with their fellow chapter members.

Maintain act ve student status and AMA membership while serving in this role.

At ending execut ve member meet ngs and chapter events.

Willingness and ability to at end chapter events while serving in this role.

shall be to

Leadership

At end execut ve meet ngs and majority of chapter events, with a one-year commitment. Promot on & Engagement:

Work closely with the Faculty Advisor for Advert sing & Promot ons on various tasks. Advocate for chapter events to WGU students and Market ng Program alumni.

Engage and promote chapter act vit es across social media channels, target ng both members and non-members.

Encourage member part cipat on in chapter events using approved plat orms.

Collaborate with the Faculty Advisor for Advert sing and Promot on to share chapter news, projects, and events, represent ng the chapter's voice.

Digital Presence & Branding:

Manage chapter's LinkedIn page as well as other community and promot onal plat orms, including post ng execut ve member bios and leading discussions.

Coordinate with faculty advisors and the College of Business Market ng to ensure the chapter website is current, linked to the national AMA website, and aligns with brand guidelines.

Administrat ve:

Providing records and account informat on (i.e., username & password) to faculty advisors as requested and prior to the end of your t me in this role.

Fulf lling addit onal dut es as delegated by the faculty advisors or president.

Qualif cations:

This posit on will need to be filled by a chapter member with a love for all things AMA, the Market ng Profession, and WGU and be willing to share that excitement and energy with their fellow chapter members.

Maintain act ve student status and AMA membership while serving in this role.

At ending execut ve member meet ngs and chapter events.

Willingness and ability to at end chapter events while serving in this role.