

Compliance FAQ

Why is compliance required?	Compliance requirements align with site contractual/legal expectations and practices that have become standard in the healthcare industry and are required to meet the legal liability for your field experience within a healthcare setting. The compliance requirements help to reduce communicable diseases in the healthcare setting, ultimately keeping you, patients, and healthcare workers safe during your field experiences.
I am an employee of the site; do I need to complete compliance?	Yes, you will need to complete the compliance requirements. You are not considered an employee during your field experience, even if you are employed at the same site. Your employment status and your field
Is there a fee for compliance?	Yes, the immunization-tracking subscription is a student incurred fee. There may be fees associated with the purchase of additional site-specific compliance items (i.e., drug screening, updated background check if necessary, etc.) Please refer to the American DataBank website for the specific costs.
When does my compliance need to be complete?	You should begin working on Compliance immediately following the Clinical Information Session. Your ADB/Complio account must be fully compliant, a minimum of one month prior to your field experience.
Can I send my American Data
How do I submit a copy of my nursing license?	You can obtain the documentation for your RN license from your state-specific Board of Nursing website or Nursys online service. Nursys' website address is https://www.nursys.com . To submit proof of your current nursing license, you can
